

Example of CT Technologist Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of CT technologist. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for CT technologist

- Operates scanner's computerized controls and enters commands necessary to visualize and manipulate screen images
- Under the supervision of the Radiology Director and Radiology Manager, is responsible for the provision of Imaging Services to include the specialty areas of CT, routine diagnostic x-rays, portable x-rays, and fluoroscopy
- Responsible for maintaining on-going Quality Control (QC) processes in CT department
- Assists radiologist with imaging and interventional procedures, starting IV's, and injecting contrast if needed
- Provides care for the psychological and physical needs of patients for CT scans
- Understands and uses field of view, kVp, mAs and other adjustments and factors on the equipment in order to produce high quality images
- Checks patient history, and obtains appropriate waivers and forms, if applicable
- Screens patients for contraindications to iodinated contrast injection
- Handles delicate situations (tumors, cancerous pathology,) in a supportive and empathetic manner ("good bedside manners") while maintaining appropriate confidentiality regarding exam outcomes or potential issues
- Monitors Patient Library and print films as needed

Qualifications for CT technologist

- This position is full-time nights rotating weekends - 12 hour shifts
- American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT-CT) Registered Technologist (R.T.), required
- Bachelor of Science Degree or two year Radiologic technology program
- One year experience as staff radiology technologist
- This position is full-time evenings Sunday through Thursday (11pm-7am)