Our innovative and growing company is hiring for a cyber specialist. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for cyber specialist

- Security Test and Evaluation (ST&E) Reports
- Continuous Monitoring Reports
- Common Procedures
- Common Guides
- Security Information and Event Management (SIEM) System
- Anti-Virus I Endpoint Protection Management System
- Key member of project team responsible for performing direct assessments to support client cyber security program
- Facilitate security requirements sessions
- Develop and implement plans of actions and milestones (POA&Ms) to address security requirements
- Maintain systems already approved through the DCID 6/3 C&A process

Qualifications for cyber specialist

- A Bachelor's degree with at least 6 years' experience in cybersecurity and risk management best practices
- Top Secret (may need and SCI and poly later)
- Database (e.g., Oracle, MySQL)
- 5+ years of technical writing experience developing communications plans and products for internal and external audiences
- Excellent technical writing and editing skills, including the use of AP Style
- Experience developing news articles, monthly newsletters, executive