Our innovative and growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of cyber. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for cyber

- Assess student knowledge, skills, and abilities to gauge student proficiency in topic area
- Apply industry best practices in adult learning principles and theories
- Review and analyze training materials and recommend changes
- Conduct courses relevant to the assigned topic area
- Provide technical area expertise to advise on the development of training material to meet the Windows Operating Systems topic area objectives
- Ensure Windows topic area training material Is integrated and supports related topic area training materials
- Perform task and skill analysis of training requirements to develop learning objectives within training materials
- Interact with training developers, curriculum managers and mission customers to assist with design and implementation of a total training package
- Coordinate with ADET to incorporate training into the NCS curriculum as required
- Strong team player and communicator who is able to lead, motivate, and participate in a team oriented, fast-paced environment

Qualifications for cyber

- Must be able to maintain level of clearance required for this position
- Working knowledge of DCID 6/3 entity

- Ability to identify C2, dropper files, registry key modifications, DLL injection, based on malware analysis
- Pursing a Bachelor or Master of Science degree in Electrical or Computer Engineering, Computer Science, Physics, or a similar field, with a focus Cyber Security
- Process analysis/engineering