Our innovative and growing company is hiring for a database analyst. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for database analyst

- Knowledge of Oracle, OLAP, and SSAS design a plus
- Strong inter-personal and team member skills
- Ability to work with equal level of effectiveness at all management levels in company
- Develop and maintain databases and modeling activities for all business efforts
- Collaborate with end-users to create apps and reports to sit on top of the data warehouse, including but not limited to an enterprise-wide suite of daily reports, user-defined report "favorites" based on specific job functions, a browser-based reporting portal
- Configure systems and databases according to standards and best industry practice
- Produce technical documentation necessary for the administration of database environments, while maintaining a high standard regarding quality of service
- Support the SOW process
- Maintains database for various projects
- Integrates data from various sources

Qualifications for database analyst

- Familiarity with different coding structures and adaptability to new coding requirements
- Must have proven ability to communicate technical concepts to clients having managers, subject matter experts and both internal and external high-profile clients

- Bachelor's degree in quantitative fields, Statistics, Math, Operations Research and Economic
- Java programming and Long-term care or Home Health care industry experience an asset
- Knowledge of object-oriented database concepts is essential
- Intuition, experience and desire to work with web applications or computer software independently