Our growing company is looking to fill the role of design technologist. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for design technologist

- Bootstrap files (including JavaScript libraries)
- Create JavaScript/ JQuery functions from scratch
- Modify existing JavaScript/ JQuery functions S settings
- Establishment and management of blocks in conjunction with technical design
- Management of product details and care instructions
- A curiosity and passion for design and making amazing experiences
- An obsession for the customer
- An ability to dive into the details but also be able to step back and see the bigger picture
- An ability to work independently in an ambiguous environment
- Partnering with the new product development team(s) and internal Catheter & Accessories team members to develop Fitness For Use based User Needs, Design Inputs, and Design Outputs

Qualifications for design technologist

- Experience with data visualization technologies, including Tableau and D3
- Portfolio of work that demonstrates detailed attention to organization of information, typography, and color
- Experience creating UI mocks, and doing rapid full-stack prototyping of those mocks
- Follower of the data visualization community