Our company is growing rapidly and is hiring for a design technologist. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for design technologist

- Effectively document work, the results of experiments, and conclusions drawn, provide training documentation for system tools
- Use broad skill base to support the above activities
- Able think outside of the box on how to improve E&CP processes and procedures
- Work with the design team to uncover new interactive experiences using design, UX and code
- Turn wireframes and low fidelity sketches into prototypes for evaluation and testing
- Assist with user research and to synthesize findings, and use them to guide new experiments in UI and UX
- Use system thinking to create reusable and component-based user interfaces
- Proven track record quickly implementing technologies that are new to you and an appetite for learning
- Reviews current material items such as transformers, breakers, poles, relays, to ensure proper accounting has been applied to compatible unit
- Lead large, wide impact design projects

Qualifications for design technologist

- For each contracted project, assist in the preparation of project specific technical documentation packages for distribution to the client's technical

- Any other specific duties, which may be assigned from time to time by the Theatre Design Manager or the Vice President, Theatre Development Technology
- Or without a degree, a minimum of 10 years of professional experience in the field
- Four years of related experience in video editing
- Design experience in surface grading, road way design, site features, culverts, storm water management systems, and minor structural elements for landscape architecture designs
- Design of sewer networks and detail design would be an asset