Our growing company is looking for a designer engineer. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for designer engineer

- Support development of discrete, module site structure and code, with a focus on code reuse
- Support code review efforts for project work and suggest areas to refactor or improve
- Communicate technical requirements, benefits or limitations in terms that non-technical staff can easily understand
- Contribute to business development efforts through customer relationship and request-for-proposal submission support
- Research the latest usability paradigms/trends in the industry, in the space of Human Computer Interaction
- Design and champion creative and compelling user interfaces that will enhance application adoption and drive simplicity
- Work closely with Digital SME and Solution Architects to rapidly investigate and analyze requirements, diagram user profiles and workflows
- Develop or generate HTML pages to be used for prototypes or demos
- Develop UI flow diagrams for different user personas
- Develop style guides for prototypes

Qualifications for designer engineer

- Must currently possess Secret Clearance and be able to obtain a TS SCI w/ CI Poly
- Minimum 8 years of facility-related HVAC design experience required
- Previous experience including the implementation of engineered designs for

- Proficiency with HVAC load and energy calculations, and Title 24 energy compliance calculations required
- Experience with UX disciplines such as UX research methods, information architecture, usability testing and content strategies
- Experience with tools and frameworks used in front-end development including Bootstrap, Angular, Grunt, GitHub, SASS and Less