Our company is growing rapidly and is looking to fill the role of designer footwear. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for designer footwear

- Reacting to sales information and designing commercially relevant fashion forward ranges
- Design in performance categories at an expert level both aesthetically and technically
- Build a consumer and retail-centric seasonal product line
- Mentor and inspire less experienced designers on the team
- Provide support for Design Director with regard to design and development of the footwear line
- Work closely with Designer/Merchandisers to interpret consumer and market needs
- Submitting and following through with designs throughout prototype and development stages
- Collaboration with design team and cross functional partners
- Researching, developing and designing footwear to support the designer on the department
- Being aware of overriding menswear trends and work with the design team to create the trends for the season

Qualifications for designer footwear

- Ability to provide hand or computer illustrations, technical sketches and color-ups
- A great taste level in working with color/print and the selection of silhouettes

- Bachelor's Degree in Accessories Design, ideally with a Footwear Concentration
- Bachelor's Degree in Design (apparel), or equivalent combination of education and experience
- Experience in flat sketching expertise