

Example of Development VP Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of development VP. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for development VP

- Oversee contractor and subcontractors work to ensure compliance with contract and client expectations
 - Identify and address areas of concern, if any, regarding potential liabilities and risk (fee, our reputation, errors and omissions)
 - Assist in training and developing local PDS team members in the skills and understanding of firm procedures, methodology and practices expected for a successful project implementation
 - Demonstrate proficiency in the use and application of all PDS technology as required for projects
 - Bring new technologies that help execute on the roadmap reduce manual employee intervention
 - Generate revenue that meets or exceeds defined revenue and profit targets from the sale of syndicated research products and custom research services
 - Employ a consultative, strategic selling approach with the goal of generating revenue
 - Build new client relationships and expand existing business with current clients
 - Consult with clients and build your own trusted advisor respect with colleagues externally and internally
 - Manage all aspects of the sales process including prospecting, qualifying, meeting, negotiating, and closing clients
-

- Draft the Response on behalf of BMO Capital Markets where applicable and obtain the required approvals before providing the response to the regulator
- Assist with management reporting on regulatory development matters where required
- 7+ years of relevant business experience, preferably in Capital Markets
- Ability to process complex legislative/regulatory matters and apply it operationally
- Ability to work with various jurisdictional regulations
- Demonstrated success of obtaining results in a complex global organization, including evidencing the ability to influence others