Our company is growing rapidly and is looking for a development VP. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for development VP

- Oversee campaign publicity and develop marketing materials for the campaign
- Develop and implement a recognition program for individual and workplace contributors and campaign volunteers
- Collaborate with the VP–Branding & Communications on the key messages for all audiences to communicate the organization's brand identity and joint oversight of the execution of all communication activities
- Perform other tasks as assigned by the President/CEO
- Developing new owner partner relationships and expanding on existing Two Roads relationships
- Negotiating and securing hotel management contracts from lead generation, LOI to HMA signing
- Liaise between key Two Roads departments to ensure projects and local partners are representative of the brands and have a high potential for success
- Industry networking and relationship management
- Liaise directly with consultants and local legal counsel
- Lead and sustain lean transformation to model production lines

Qualifications for development VP

- 5 plus years of experience managing a team of software developers for Web,

- Previous experience building and deploying services on Amazon Web Services, Azure
- Previous experience doing a multi-million dollars development budget
- Minimum ten (10) years of progressive Human Resources, Talent Management, Organizational Development and Leadership Development experience
- Demonstrated experience developing and managing programs around workforce planning, succession planning, learning and development and career development
- Demonstrated experience developing and using talent analytics to understand trends