Our growing company is hiring for a devops engineer cloud. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for devops engineer cloud

- When designated Secondary On-Call POC, will be responsible for providing 24/7 support for one week, unless called
- When designated Primary On-Call POC, must respond to calls within one hour
- When designated Secondary On-Call POC, must respond to calls within one hour
- When designated Primary On-Call POC, must report to work within two hours (one additional hour from the initial response)
- When designated Secondary On-Call POC, must report to work within two hours (one additional hour from the initial response)
- Lead architecture and development direction for devops/ automation across our products
- Drive continuous improvement across our development, promotion, quality and deployment processes across our entire software development life-cycle
- Develop key metrics and help the team use best practices
- Work closely with devopsengineers to integrate test automation firmly into our CI/CD code promotion pipeline
- Help the team appropriately manage quality-related epics, stories, tasks and defects within our agile development processes and tools

Qualifications for devops engineer cloud

- At least 1 years' experience developing applications in Agile environments
- At least 2 years' experience with Git

- 3+ years' developing automation workflows and routines, using Open Source Tools (Jenkins, Hudson), or Vendor Based Tools (HPSA/OO, vCAC, uDeploy)
- Experience with bash, python, or ruby scripting
- At least 3 years experience with NoSQL implementation (Mongo, Cassandra, a plus)