

Example of Diagnostic Medical Sonographer Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking for a diagnostic medical sonographer. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for diagnostic medical sonographer

- Ensures high-quality of all images and documents sent to digital storage or PACS (image quality, correct markers, annotations and patient data/history)
- Provides clinical education for students enrolled in the Medical Science programs
- Possesses and demonstrates adequate knowledge/competency to provide Ultrasound services with technique appropriate to pediatric, adolescent, adult and geriatric patients
- Responsible for the coordination of patient exam flow through the department and assist the office staff, ER staff, Nursing staff with the scheduling of patients
- Maintains sonographic and other equipment in efficient operating order
- Performs additional manager or supervisor assigned duties
- Provides monitoring, coaching and evaluation of team members' performance, especially in the areas of productivity and quality management
- Serves as a positive role model by working with team members to promote teamwork and cooperation
- Oversees equipment quality control testing, maintenance, and troubleshooting
- Handles delicate situations (fetal demise, cancerous pathology,) in a supportive and empathetic manner ("good bedside manner"), while maintaining appropriate confidentiality regarding exam outcomes or potential issues

- Represents the mission, vision and values of the organization through volunteer activities which enhance the image of the profession and the organization throughout the community, , fundraisers, walks, community education fairs, *
- Required to stand, push, pull and lift patients
- In order to work effectively with patients, must have effective interpersonal skills and be able to stand, walk, bend, lift at least 50 pounds, hear, speak, and see
- May be required to lift objects heavier than 50 pounds, perform difficult manipulative skills and hand-eye coordination skills, walk and stand for prolonged periods, see objects closely and hear normal sounds with some background noises
- Must be able to adjust routine to accommodate patient or department without affecting departmental flow
- Ability to operate Radiologic equipment and perform related technical procedures