

Example of Dietetic Technician Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is hiring for a dietetic technician. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for dietetic technician

- Develop preliminary and comprehensive assessments of the dietary needs of each resident
- Develop a written dietary plan of care (preliminary and comprehensive) that identifies the dietary problems/needs of the resident and the goals to be accomplished for each dietary problem/need identified
- Contact appropriate allied health staff (Lactation Consultants, Nursing) should parents need assistance with lactation and breast milk issues
- Coordinates and provides individualized patient care with the storage, preparation, and packaging of breast milk and formulas in the Infant Nourishment Room
- Generates labels, measures milk/formula, calculates additives and fills feeding orders for 24 hour period, according to physician order
- Adheres to all sanitary regulations and standards per policy
- Responsible for safe and effective operation of equipment needed to prepare infant milk mixtures
- Communicates effectively with other care providers to provide continuity of patient care and to meet the needs of the patients
- Responds to management, nursing, and patient requests appropriately
- Prepare food for patients, staff, and guests in the hospital

Qualifications for dietetic technician

- Food service and/or nutrition related experience required for minimum of 1-2 years

- Associate of Arts Degree in Dietetic Technology and required Registration with Commission on Dietetic Registration
- Registration with Commission on Dietetic Registration (for Associate of Arts Degree)
- Clinical Analysis
- This position is designated mission essential during inclement weather, which means you would be expected to make every attempt to report for duty on time and/or remain on duty regardless of weather and/or road conditions