

Example of Director, Design Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is looking to fill the role of director, design. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for director, design

- At least five years of successful experience managing design outcomes, people and strategy
- Drive concept design for future products
- Validate design work through both quantitative and qualitative methodologies
- Align products design to support corporate and marketing brand initiatives
- Significant design experience with phone and tablet devices
- A history of managing design teams and leading them to greatness
- Drive and coordinate the calendar and process through the Design team and Cross-Functional teams including Concept, CAD, Fabric, Tech, Merchant, and Production
- Build a strong design/quality culture and team work environment
- Advocate for design excellence
- Participate in strategic business development for the Interior Design group

Qualifications for director, design

- Ability to identify, use and leverage specific development projects to use as prototypes and best practices of enterprise-wide designs
- Capture, visualize and communicate creative ideas so other team members and clients can accurately interpret them (including information design, storyboards, concept sketches, mood/color palettes)

- 8+ years experience in corp./agency/design firm or similar
- BA in Graphic Design, User Interaction, or related field from an accredited university
- Demonstrable track record in solving complex brand challenges