

Example of Director Medical Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of director medical. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for director medical

- Participates in nurse case management review
- Attends case review round tables
- Manages utilization review decisions when questions arise
- Defines medical policies and protocols
- Contributes to the decisions for reserves on special cases
- Reviews high cost issues and directs independent medical examinations of claimants as warranted
- Directs, develops and participates in the medical education of Claims Services Representatives, Medical Care Representatives and other Department staff to reinforce the understanding of new technologies and applications currently being requested by the medical community
- Acts as NYSIF's liaison to the medical community
- Interfaces with clients as a medical expert
- Promotes sound medical case management to address medical claims issues that have unexpected indemnity losses and/or problematic return-to-work issues

Qualifications for director medical

- Pharmaceutical product development, product lifecycle and commercialization process with advanced understanding of other functions
- Board certification/eligibility in specialty area desired but not required

- Current board certification (Internal Medicine) in an ABMS or AOA recognized specialty (grandfathered by the board or maintained by the MOC program)
- Graduate of a recognized medical school and recipient of an M.D
- MD required, subspecialty training in GI, cardiology, or nephrology is preferred