

Example of Director Medical Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is looking for a director medical. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for director medical

- Author clinical sections of IND's, Investigator Brochures, CTA's, ISS's, ISE's and clinical expert reports
- Provide medical management and expertise for clinical trials
- Manage safety issues in clinical trials and work closely with associates in evaluation and assessment of the trials
- Recommending and implementing clinical policies and procedures
- Supervising a small clinical staff in their medical and nursing duties
- Ensuring continuous quality improvement in all clinical activities
- May assist in outside presentations or provider recruitment and retention
- Responsible for chairing appropriate health services committees, providing leadership for pharmacy and health services utilization management projects, and assisting in the development and maintenance of medical management projects
- Provides support and guidance for appeals, medical, Long Term Services and Supports, and medication prior-authorization requests, and benefit designs and levels
- Assists in working with other divisions for managing Medicare/Medicaid, as applicable, requirements

Qualifications for director medical

- Minimum, at least five years of direct patient care experience
- Graduate degree such as an MBA or MPH

- Demonstrated advanced ability to deal with confidential information
- Demonstrated advanced negotiation skills