

Example of Director, Supply Chain Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of director, supply chain. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for director, supply chain

- Communicate with executives regarding business needs to secure resources needed to satisfy customer demands and ensure delivery and/or implementation
- Develop and manage an S&OP process with the Operational and Manufacturing teams
- Drive strategic business value and innovation to enable the Growth Game Plan
- Overall responsibility for serving as the strategic interface with assigned business units for the purpose of business/IT strategy development, solution discovery, service management, risk management and relationship management
- Serves as the business relationship linkage between the business teams and IT, at multiple levels including the executive level
- Recruit, retain and develop regional/functional talent (internal and external) to support operations
- Proactively shares knowledge of technology risks and opportunities to build competitive advantage, improve efficiency and effectiveness for our company
- Focuses on strategic initiatives and plans, proactive, anticipatory and driving in nature and provides significant value to business teams
- Manages business relationships and projects across teams, vendors and 3rd party providers
- Oversees prioritization and delivery of solutions for area(s) of ownership ensuring value realization

-
- Educated to degree level, preferably with MBA or Msc in Supply Chain or logistics
 - Substantial operating and leadership experience in a supply chain environment within a manufacturing business
 - Previous experience in delivery of substantial business improvement projects
 - Proven leadership with a strong global perspective and the ability to operate effectively in a complex and culturally diverse organization
 - A practical understanding of Integrated Business Planning
 - Experience in the Chemical Industry preferred