

Example of Director, Supply Chain Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of director, supply chain. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for director, supply chain

- Lead cross-functional project teams and sourcing efforts requiring engagement at senior levels of the organization
- Direct and coordinate priorities for subordinates in Forecasting/Demand Planning, Supply Planning, Inventory Management, Logistics
- Coordinate supply, manufacturing and delivery systems to ensure the optimization of customer service performance, cost, inventories, quality, cycle time and delivery
- Develop the logistics and distribution strategy to ensure customer needs are met within cost and working capital standards
- Establishment and management of supply chain / logistics management policies and procedures
- Oversight of supply planning and ensuring demand is met
- Implement robust, best practices through active participation in the SIOP process
- Execute the Supply Chain Performance Measurement plan at the facility and report these results to the Supply Chain
- Officer in an accurate and timely manner
- Establishment of operational policies and implementation of both long and short-term plans to achieve divisional objectives for procurement of raw materials and finished goods to support a flawless product launch

Qualifications for director, supply chain

- Be the lead supply chain representative in all external negotiations deputising for the Finance and Commercial Director where appropriate
- Management responsibility for the teams in Contract Management
- Broad experience in supply chain management, legal, account management, cost optimisation gained in public/private ventures
- Leadership of large teams in first class delivery in collaboration with the business
- Deep knowledge of technology, telecoms, energy industries