

Example of Economic Analyst Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking to fill the role of economic analyst. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for economic analyst

- Develop actionable reports for internal clients using various reporting and query tools, especially MS-SQL and Reporting Services
 - Administer SQL server and data warehouse while identifying critical areas of the data structure and recommend improvements to existing reports and reporting processes
 - Assists in the consolidation of economic projections
 - Analyzes economic and operative performances, identifying undesired deviations vs
 - LLB (Legal) Degree or Finance Degree majoring in Accounting or Financial Management
 - Perform life cycle analysis and economic analysis studies for major phases of varied equipment/systems using mathematical models, matrices, simulation models, ACEIT, and other parametric models
 - Perform broad range of cost and/or economic analysis assignments involving unique problems, requirements for creativity, innovative use of techniques, advanced approaches and/or new technologies
 - Provide authoritative interpretation of DOD, DA, and AMC guidelines and regulations concerning production, cost and economic analysis requirements and techniques
 - Information gathering, charting interpretation and analysis
 - Presenting key views to internal and external clients
-

- Self-motivated and ability to work independently in a team
- Help influence the company's decisions on its new service offerings by understanding the underlying costs and capabilities
- Understand how these technologies are deployed in operations and used to construct new product/service offerings
- Enhance your knowledge of emerging services and underlying network equipment
- Graduate Degree with advanced coursework in economics or finance, or an equivalent combination of education and experience
- Strongest candidates will have a graduate degree in economics, finance or business or a minimum of two years relevant professional experience