Our growing company is hiring for an economics research. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for economics research

- Coordinate team members to develop materials required for submissions (including horizon scanning, PAS and HTA submissions where required)
- Establish and coordinate clear stakeholder engagement plans across functions to maximise the likelihood of successful HTA
- Ensure all submission and external communication documents are aligned to strategy and internally consistent
- Develop contingency plans and alternative approaches during and following HTA review
- Ensure clear lines of communication about progress, hurdles and difficulties and changes to strategy with the brand team and senior management
- Manage direct communication with HTA bodies and, in close collaboration with government affairs and communications, other critical national stakeholders
- Lead/manage/support implementation of health economics, outcomes and population management resources and initiatives with customers and accounts
- Strategic forward planning for new indications for existing products and the future pipeline in the context of optimising local, European and global revenues
- Ensures global Phase II and III research plans reflect the evidence needs of the UK HTA environment to maximise likelihood of future approvals – this will include but not be restricted to real-world evidence planning, identification of

 Has competitive intelligence, identifies early opportunities and threats in the market and develops comprehensive access strategies to benefit from opportunities and to disarm threats

Qualifications for economics research

- Experience in outcomes-based strategies and tactics to meet both commercial and scientific objectives for a given product is preferred
- Experience in conducting outcomes research studies applying health economics, patient-reported outcomes, retrospective and prospective data analyses, epidemiology or health services research is preferred
- Prior Immunology experience preferred
- This role may require up to 15% travel.Health Economics R&D
- Minimum Bachelor's Degree in Journalism, Communications, Economics, Tourism/Hospitality, Real Estate or Property related disciplines
- Good Mandarin Chinese communication skills preferred, but not required