

Example of Editor, Graphics Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of editor, graphics. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for editor, graphics

- Assist in the research and implementation of control room system software and hardware upgrades
- Develop organized processes for the department to effectively execute its daily duties
- Perform game night duties as assigned
- The Editor will be responsible for generating new ideas and creating visual stories with graphics, interactives and newsroom apps
- As part of The Journal's strategic goal to be more visual and digital, the Editor will also help create new workflows and processes in a fast-paced and cross-platform newsroom
- Creating visual stories, the editor will contribute to editing graphics and also work closely with the director of graphics and head of Journal Reports to prioritize and assign graphics when projects require more assistance
- The Editor will work with the audience and off-platform teams to help drive decisions around coverage
- Design & create engaging motion graphics for video deliverables (corporate videos, YouTube videos, in-house videos, social media videos)
- Create & deliver motion graphics in various media including web, Instagram, mobile
- Skill in bringing infographics to life through motion

Qualifications for editor, graphics

- Data is essential to our work, so the right candidate will have an interest in data journalism and have the ability to manipulate and query with Excel, SQL, R and Python
- Expertise with layout, typography, color and interaction design
- Able to display data on maps using CartoDB, Mapbox or Leaflet is a plus
- Able to help reporters and editors learn new skills that will contribute to their visual storytelling