

Example of Editor, Senior Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of editor, senior. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for editor, senior

- To work with the design team to help them to visualize the book covers
- To be responsible for CRC/formatted copies ready for printing of 75 titles per year
- To build and manage the team, give necessary support to each member and train them to maximize their potential
- Spot breaking news and interesting trends and help writers frame stories to generate site traffic
- Edit (and occasionally write) at high volume, when needed, but without sacrificing accuracy or good writing
- Translate complicated subjects into compelling, engaging stories that are understandable, actionable, and interesting
- Find compelling angles and ways to draw traffic for core service content
- Develop smart new coverage ideas and find opportunities to create ambitious, interactive acts
- Produce advertorial content that also rivals pure editorial
- Assesses trends and funding in Physics, evaluates strategies, strengths and weaknesses of competitors

Qualifications for editor, senior

- Proven history of reporting, editing and compiling material
- A strong line editor
- A team player with a collaborative attitude

- Self-sufficient trouble shooter—can re-patch a capture station, trouble shoot Pcs and Macs and problem solve audio/video issues as they arise