

Example of Educational Consultant Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is looking to fill the role of educational consultant. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for educational consultant

- Coordinate and conduct orientations and training opportunities for educators
- Support implementation and execution of the grant's goals and objectives through ongoing evaluation and consultation
- Communicate needs to the Project Director and/or the Site Project Coordinator
- Serve as educational consultant for key issues, including teacher recruitment and retention, leadership pipeline development and school turnaround
- Preparing, and conducting in-service trainings for school personnel
- Utilize all tools provided (eg
- Provide updates on all sales activities to the Director, Strategic Account sales on a regular basis, including current leads, price quote requests, demo requests at strategic district-level accounts
- Regular meetings will be set for updates on progress in line with the agreed work plan
- Develop and execute long term sales strategy by mapping out competitive terrain and forging partnership with teachers, school district officials and administrators
- Drive market growth through customer retention and developing new business via face-to-face customer interaction

Qualifications for educational consultant

- Bachelor's degree in psychology or related field of study with at least 10

- Make an impact
- Stay healthy
- Be engaged
- Minimum of three years teaching experience in grades K-12 required