

Example of Electric Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking for an electric. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for electric

- Meet company driving qualifications
- Design facilities for new and existing customers according to company construction standards and interpret administrative instructions for consistent and cost effective designs
- Provide distribution design project management for the least complex areas of design
- Responsible for the generation of additional company revenue through contacts with new business or existing business
- Establish and maintain the construction work plan with construction forces in order to meet the customers' schedule and design requirements financial and budgetary requirements
- Execute contracts and agreements in compliance with administrative instructions and regulatory requirements
- Promote a safe work environment and design a safe operating system while providing premier customer service
- Support and promote company safety programs, including monitoring public safety around company Deliverable facilities
- Support electric distribution design activities including but not limited to facility replacement, new services, staking, permits, billing, contracts and locate tickets
- Provide engineering support on distribution, substation, and transmission projects

Qualifications for electric

- Professional dealing with customers
- High flexibility and willingness to travel (Czech Republic, Germany)
- Knowledge of SW tools for DMU / electro-design (Catia, NX, Engineering Base, E3.Cable, PREEvision)
- Communicative Czech
- Strong written, verbal and interpersonal skills in the English language