Our company is hiring for an engineer, / engineer. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for engineer, / engineer

- Able to work effectively function in a fast-paced and constantly changing environment
- Provide daily management and long-term leadership to ensure that the Facility meets the customers' needs, achieves monthly and annual business metrics/plans, and is positioned for sustainability and growth
- Continuously evaluate staffing levels and skill mixes to ensure that the Facility has the capacity to meet the demand for products
- Be competent to deliver, review & approve electrical engineering calculations (Amtech, Dialux, Hevacomp)
- Create CAD prints
- Specify inspection requirements
- Review and disposition inspection reports
- Establish engineering principles
- Oversee sound engineering practices in service centers
- All duties related to engineering including be not limited to design, evaluation and programming

Qualifications for engineer, / engineer

- Familiarity with GIS platforms, and geo-spatial tools and APIs is a plus
- Strong knowledge of Microsoft Word, Excel, Visio and UML modeling tools
- Experience related to downstream process development technology transfer, scale-up and ongoing manufacturing of biologics (cGMP)
- Proficient in Mechanical and Thermal design studies using numerical and CFD

- Proficient in two or more computer programming languages, MatLab and/or SimuLINK required
- Proficient in modern experimental methods, instrumentation, and measurement systems