

Example of Engineer Mission Assurance Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking to fill the role of engineer mission assurance. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for engineer mission assurance

- Monitors quality controls (e.g., evaluations, inspections) providing detection, reporting, and resolution of problems
- Reviews processes and makes recommendations as part of continual process improvement
- Participates in program boards such as the Change Control Board, deemed necessary on a program
- Contributes to the definition of non-financial project measures (i.e., quality, technical, customer satisfaction) used to monitor program execution
- Facilitates preparation, evaluates readiness, and serves as co-chair of internal project execution reviews
- Steers the project to ensure corrective actions and root cause analysis for problems are collected in the program's action tracking system

Qualifications for engineer mission assurance

- Ensures processes are implemented in accordance with the QCP
- Develops checklists, inspection criteria, and assessment and audits plans
- Facilitates adherence to processes, quality controls, and work instructions for the program and champions improvements to existing work processes
- Independently evaluates the effectiveness of project work processes, quality controls, and recommends improvements which would improve project execution

- Conducts assessments and reviews based upon plans