Our company is growing rapidly and is looking to fill the role of engineer / senior engineer. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for engineer / senior engineer

- Knowledge of budget management, staff management etc or suitable relevant experience
- Works with limited supervision on technical programs
- Supervisor and individual jointly establish objectives
- Works as an effective member of a team while providing effective leadership, direction and coaching for direct reports, as applicable
- Serves as liaison with equipment manufacturers for process and machinery improvements
- Establishes and conducts test, analyzes and interprets test results and prepares reports summarizing methods employed and results obtained in the solution of the assigned project
- Requires the limited use and/or application of basic engineering or scientific principles, theories and concepts to develop solutions to problems of limited scope
- Identifies production process problems, conducts tests and experiments to analyze problems
- Provides technical support to junior engineers and technicians in response to production issues or during preventative maintenance utilizing excellent interpersonal skills
- Troubleshoots machinery as required with the support of a qualified technician

- Army aviation experience is preferred
- Experimental Test Pilot (XP) experience is desired
- 10 years of experience in the aerospace and defense industry with demonstrable business development success
- 6+ years experience in leadership and/or program management positions
- Demonstrated leadership abilities to include mentoring subordinates or team members
- Candidate must have Government civilian/military experience in DOD program management capable of professional application to acquisition (regardless of service)