Our innovative and growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of engineer senior staff. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for engineer senior staff

- Define strategies for yield improvement on assembly process, quality incident prevention/improvement relating to products
- Help optimize rig schedule in the area and maintain a three-year rig schedule to optimize value, facilitate execution and infrastructure, and satisfy leasehold obligations
- Monitor, analyze and report performance from recent well results
- Monitor and report offset competitor activity
- Maintain forward looking type curve projections by area, interval and completion design
- Work with Completion Optimization engineers to evaluate and propose completion designs that yield the best economic outcome for an area
- Work with operations engineer to improve performance efficiency of existing wells by identifying potential well problems and recommending solutions
- Help evaluate, prioritize and make recommendations for lease management
- Best practices fan-out driven by corporate to subcontractor
- Subcontractor/factory change management for assembly process related changes and non-technical changes

Qualifications for engineer senior staff

- Display power optimization experience and knowledge is preferred
- Develop and implement in-house toolchains for Android system, including and not limited to, address sanitizer, leak sanitizer, and Simulation system, for

- Interact with SoC architects and other teams, and provide solutions from software perspective to the processor architects
- Perform benchmarking testing and analysis of performance, in order to improve the compiler and user applications
- Write architecture, design and implementation documents, and project progress report
- Minimal of 5+ years of related experience