Our innovative and growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of engineering director. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for engineering director

- Establish and maintain procedures to a) ensure the security of inventory and assets such as tools, supplies, equipment, furniture, televisions, b) replenish supplies and inventory in a timely and efficient manner, and c) to minimize waste
- Ensure sound technical decisions are being made in your teams
- Drive strategic decisions about organizational, technical, or business investments our teams may need to make
- Influence software development best practices throughout the company
- Author, lead, or adopt new open-source technologies to the organization
- Manage stakeholders and leadership (particularly those that work out of our east coast offices) through regular meetings, communication, and presentations
- Constantly work with Product Management, Architecture, and the release train engineers to build and adjust development procedures
- Develop, maintain, and leverage relationships with vendors and 3rd party partners
- Still able to open, write, and talk about code (and can prove it)
- Providing hands on leadership for a teams of extremely talented senior engineers and senior managers who architect and design Security products that power the core of the Web Security Business

Qualifications for engineering director
- Minimum of 8-10 years of facility and commercial electrical experience
- Thorough knowledge of Video, Voice and Data system architectures
- Thorough knowledge of HFC, IP, and other data transmission networks
- General knowledge of computer hardware architectures
- Demonstrated history of leadership positions in high volume, fast paced, environment requiring teamwork, flexibility and management of change