

Example of Enterprise Operations Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is looking for an enterprise operations. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for enterprise operations

- Provide support for finance and business initiatives as required
 - Direct ongoing GapTech - Enterprise Operations expense management efforts
 - Serve as primary initial responder within the Enterprise Operations team in notification, identifying, and troubleshooting for Network Data/Voice technologies
 - You will provide proactive value added analysis, advice and reporting
 - Identify, monitor, report and analyze key cost drivers, metrics and trends to provide proactive advice to EO&P on cost management opportunities, success in achieving cost reduction targets
 - Responsible for analysis of charge out methodologies and rates for EO&P costs, ensuring they are well understood by all business, finance and EO&P stakeholders
 - Manage all processing, reporting and analysis of EO&P charges to Platforms and businesses ensuring that NIE is fully recovered
 - Consolidate the financial plans and forecasts, including providing analytics to support and explain cost drivers to SVP, EO&P
 - Work with the external supplier related to support for processing of checks and statements, managing related reconciliations, attestation, and supplier's service level agreements
 - Provide telephone support and guidance to Strategic and Relationship banks on all P&TC products, services and investigations
-

- Familiar with other databases and data solutions such as MySQL
- A minimum of 10 years of leading organizational, business and platform transformation with a proven track record of consistently strong performance in a multi-national environment
- MBA/Masters is a plus
- The position requires an individual who understands how to get things done in a large, complex organization through influence and collaboration, and has a broad business background or diverse program experience
- Process design experience for the professional services industry is desirable
- Excellent financial/analytical , communication (oral/written) and interpersonal skills in order to establish strong relationships with partners