

Example of Entertainment Manager Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is hiring for an entertainment manager. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for entertainment manager

- Maintains the operational efficiency of each venue, area and/or element
- Helps in developing and creating weekly work schedules for employees
- Periodically represent the Entertainment Department as the Manager on Duty (Entertainment 1) for a specific operating day
- Plans and implements action plans for the department's future success for ESAT and GSAT, including training programs, workforce planning, and rewards and recognition programs
- Participate in defining and executing the video product strategy for CNÉ, including The Scene
- Translate user needs and business objectives into intuitive and compelling products
- Build strong relationships with the programming and engineering teams to assess the viability of new products and ideas
- Direct and influence a cross-functional team comprised of design, business, engineering, marketing, and research leaders to refine existing products
- Regularly use consumer feedback, site metrics, market research, and competitive analyses to create compelling arguments for what we should do and why
- Gather content, business, and technical requirements while managing scope, timelines, and execution for large projects and ongoing site maintenance

Qualifications for entertainment manager

- Experience managing projects involving responsive web design highly desirable
- Experience managing projects involving mobile products (e.g., apps for iOS, Android,) desirable
- Avid Experience, Post Audio, Digital Graphics (Photoshop, After Effects) a plus
- Past DVD/BD and EST experience a plus
- Strategic, creative, critical thinker with sound financial acumen