

Example of Environmental Health Safety Manager Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is looking to fill the role of environmental health safety manager. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for environmental health safety manager

- In partnership with operational leadership, set up and maintain safety training programs in all applicable safety competency areas
- Develops and implements safety & environmental awareness training material and programs with an emphasis on behavior-based safety, increasing hazard awareness, and supporting regulatory compliance and internal environmental management programs
- Analyzes and assesses plant safety trend data to drive safety resource allocation and ergonomic initiatives to reduce injuries
- Responsible for inspecting the facility to detect existing or potential environmental health and safety hazards, including identification of opportunities to reduce safety and regulatory risk
- Work closely with plant leadership and scientific staff to assure that appropriate process safety considerations are being and that practices and procedures are planned and followed
- Coordinate HSE&S management systems (ISO 14001, RC 14001, PSM/RMP, VPP, SAQ Compliance), and develop and propose action plans to maintain and improve the integrated HSE&S management systems on site
- Work closely with departments to develop safety programs (lockout/tag out)
- Be responsible for implementing hospital safety programs
- Provide regular written reports, other safety-related results and updates to the Senior Leadership Team

the facility

Qualifications for environmental health safety manager

- Bachelor's Degree in Occupational Safety and/or Environmental concentration preferred
- Demonstrated ability to communicate effectively (verbal and written) with a wide variety of audiences
- At least 5-years experience in the required fields
- Knowledge of Environmental requirements
- Bachelor's degree in Safety, Engineering or related technical field
- Assists in product launches