

Example of Environmental Monitoring Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of environmental monitoring. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for environmental monitoring

- Work closely with the Marketing department to identify and assess new opportunities for existing products opportunities for new product development
- Interface with Field Service to exchange customer information and ensure adequate support of the account base
- To ensure that appraisals and performance reviews are carried out in accordance with company policy
- To perform checking & verifying of analytical data in accordance with in-house SOPs
- Accountable for maintaining a safe work environment in a GMP-FDA regulated environment
- Management of environmental monitoring of production facilities including utility monitoring programs and input into clean room qualifications and protocols
- Developed and implement programs for trending of EM and utility data
- Responsible for reporting and investigation of environmental excursions for all classified areas utilities
- Developed organizational and training strategies to provide maximum testing efficiency
- Manage performance and established metrics for the environmental

Qualifications for environmental monitoring

- 1-3 years of relevant post-degree work experience in Environmental Monitoring, Aseptic Manufacturing or Microbiological Laboratory Operations
- Evidence of good oral and written communication skills, effective presentation of concepts and ideas, interpersonal and conflict resolution skills
- Collect Room EM samples for EM routes that are assigned to downstream manufacturing
- Collect at frequency specified by site procedure
- Transport to predefined designated area
- Maintain inventory of sample collection material , media, equipment, IPA