

Example of Equipment Supervisor Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of equipment supervisor. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for equipment supervisor

- Ensure effective performance in all areas of Workshop Administration
- Ensure high standards of organisation and housekeeping are maintained in the Workshop and Yard area at all times
- Ensure any trainees have the correct supervision, mentoring and hands on development
- To deputise for the Used Parts Manager when required
- Be the "go-to" technician in the Kansas City location
- Assists with the Mechanical Integrity program as it relates to rotating equipment for the Donaldsonville Nitrogen Complex
- Assists in monitoring the condition of critical equipment in the plant through the use of continuous and offline vibration monitoring equipment, oil analysis results, process data, temperature, and ultrasonic surveys
- Designs Preventive Maintenance programs for all critical items of machinery and equipment and lubrication programs for all plant machinery
- Assists in pre-planning of all planned turnarounds, shutdowns, and special projects including timing, accumulation of job lists, ordering of parts and materials, sequencing of jobs around a critical path, sizing of work crews based on job estimation, and preparation of an overall schedule
- Bachelor's degree, preferably in mechanical engineering, with a minimum of 3 years industry-related experience

Qualifications for equipment supervisor

- Knowledge of codes and standards
- Effective at time management and delegation to the team
- Strong background in electrical and facility maintenance concepts
- Associates degree or higher in Business Management or related field preferred