Our growing company is hiring for an equity trader. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for equity trader

- Work effectively and professionally with the business partners of Global Equity Trading including compliance, risk management, IT systems, and other similar groups
- Perform in a fast paced environment with a passion for economic markets, along with a curiosity for why things happen to impact the market
- Maintain Trading information systems and daily processing equity agency business
- Develop an expertise in equity agency trading
- Execute agency orders as requested by clients and ensure best execution for our clientele
- Provide updates on the trades, market, trading environment and trading volume and price instability
- Interaction with Investment Advisors and Investment Representatives
- Execute trades across all sectors in Asian and Frontier Market equities (exclude Australia and Japan)
- Gather and analyze market color and communicate relevant information to portfolio managers, analysts, other investment professionals and traders globally
- Maximize best execution practices

Qualifications for equity trader

- Visual Basic (VBA) programming skills required
- 5-7 years of trading experience required

- Understands general market dynamics, liquidity characteristics, and interaction of supply and demand characteristics both domestically and internationally
- Understands appropriate use of electronic trading, crossing networks, dark pools, algorithms and portfolio trading
- Ability to understand and implement trading strategies to complement Portfolio Managers tactical trade objectives