Our growing company is looking for an ERP developer. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for ERP developer

- With templating frameworks for modularization of user interfaces (Bootstrap, Thymeleaf, JSF)
- JavaScript, Angular, Jquery knowledge to be able to write JS snippets to improve interactivity on client side
- Concerned about quality of the code and client's experience (be able to prove it through his work with unit testing (Junit, Mockito)
- Analysis of software issues
- Collaboration on strategic projects (Cloud, IoT, Machine Learning)
- Works with others in Information Technology and the business groups to facilitate and prioritize implementation of emergency vendor fixes and application/Tools upgrades
- Manages, tracks and escalates incoming support incidents (includes vendor fixes and business modifications) using a defined process
- Provide leadership to accomplish goals, with the ability to multi-task
- Serves on various committees, internal and external to the information technology division
- Develops plans for software deployment on heterogeneous systems

Qualifications for ERP developer

- Must demonstrate proficiency and possess experience necessary to design, enhances and develops single and multi-system applications
- Experience with ERP systems, preferably Oracle 11i or R12 applications
- Experience with SOA environments

- Oracle ERP Customization and Data Migration experience