

Example of ERP Developer Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our innovative and growing company is looking to fill the role of ERP developer. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for ERP developer

- Candidate must be a strong technical resource with an understanding of the business (functional knowledge), able to troubleshoot issues from a technical perspective
- Responsible for design, development and delivery of various PeopleSoft application development components, including reports, interfaces, conversions, and implementation of custom solutions
- Participates in code and design reviews and technical presentations to cross functional staff
- Work as technical resource on ERP Implementation project team
- Ensure compliance with all relevant policy and procedures including Software Development Lifecycle (SDLC)
- Responsible for code development based on a technical design
- Responsible for refinements to existing program code as needed
- Responsible for developing unit testing to meet requirements
- Responsible for developing unit test scripts to test code
- Responsible for checking code in and out of the code repository and ensuring that latest accepted versions are maintained

Qualifications for ERP developer

- Bachelor's Degree is required, preferably in Business, Accounting, MIS, Computer Science, Information Technology or related field
- Skilled understanding of retail application functionality

- Experience in integrating PeopleSoft and non-PeopleSoft applications using Integration Broker (IB), Java
- Working experience with Oracle UPK product and experience in using OATS for testing preferred
- Working experience with QSoft is preferred