Our innovative and growing company is looking to fill the role of ERP developer. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for ERP developer

- Ongoing Support of the eBusiness application modules for HR or other applicable work
- Problem solving in support of the eBusiness application environment and operation
- Limited eBusiness related application requests
- Update and document ERP technical processes/procedures , (backups, index rebuilds, integration setups) and ensure scheduled and performed
- Maintain CSI system availability, capacity management and performance KPI
- Collaborate with other IT teams to ensure proper performance and maintenance of systems and hardware and compatibility with integrated systems, including addressing application capacity needs, tuning, and troubleshooting
- Mentor new developers
- Build complicated/large RICE objects
- Manage Implementation cut over tasks
- Use hands-on technical knowledge to handle technical analysis, design, development, testing, debugging, implementation and post-implementation support of PeopleSoft Applications

Qualifications for ERP developer

- Should be able to drive business discussions independently and act as trusted

- 2-3 years' experience developing compelling e-Learning modules for ERP content (SAP a plus)
- Experience with a Learning Management System (Saba is a plus)
- Experience with uPerform a plus
- Comfortable navigating content creation tools