Our company is hiring for an ETL application developer. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for ETL application developer

- Interview business analysts in order to determine business requirements and understand source data systems
- Actively participate in and contribute to design sessions
- Make technical design and coding decisions independently within the scope of architectural guidance
- Assist with the creation of test cases, and participate in functional, load and performance testing
- Participate in the formulation of development procedures, standards and code maintenance and archiving
- Assist in development of project definitions, including proposals, estimates, planning, schedules and documentation
- Develop and maintain subject areas for Oracle Business Intelligence Suite
- Develop and maintain data deliveries and reporting solutions
- Create data mapping and workflow using Informatica Powercenter to extract, transform and load data into the NY APD target reporting environment
- Conform to Informatica workflow and mapping standards so development is consistent across all development resources (i.e., no hard coding, leverage of maplet, reuse concepts)

Qualifications for ETL application developer

- Development experience with Eclipse IDE
- Development experience with Tomcat/ Websphere

- Experience with unit test automation frameworks such as Junit
- Experience with Jasper reporting framework
- Develop ETL processes using Informatica/Pentaho