Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of ETL application developer. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for ETL application developer

- Ability to translate complex business requirements to optimal technical solutions
- Maintain and enhance VBA/Excel solutions
- Contribute to prioritization and stewardship of customer projects, goals and expectations
- Coordinates with business unit representatives to define and evaluate ETL needs, perform requirement analysis of business requirements
- Develop new or modify existing Informatica mappings based on the business requirements following best practices
- Write/update technical documentation including data flows
- Write test plans and perform testing, Debug and resolve issues using Informatica PowerCenter, SQL and Informatica DVO
- Independently performs problem determination and resolution in the production environment and provides production support as needed both during and after normal business hours
- Work closely with other members in BI Analytics team, Data Warehouse team and BI Admin team
- Prepare routine project status reports to Senior Developer, Manager including assisting in developing estimates for project costing

Qualifications for ETL application developer

- 2+ years experience participating in multiple technical projects through a SDLC
- Retail Industry is preferred
- Teradata experience is preferred
- Netezza experience is preferred
- Enterprise CRM experience is a plus