

Example of Field Tech Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of field tech. Please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications. While this is our ideal list, we will consider candidates that do not necessarily have all of the qualifications, but have sufficient experience and talent.

Responsibilities for field tech

- Ensure safe practices coordinating installations of towers with contractors, including line locates through the 811 system
- Ensure integrity of physical communication assets across the field, radio masts, injection towers, shelters, backhaul towers, and all associated antenna gear/cabling
- Maintain accurate documentation and inventory of communication hardware and forecast ordering needs
- Heavy labor to include shoveling and carrying materials up to 50 lbs
- Work as the point of contact for Field Technicians (FTs) across the country
- Resolve Field Technician Issues on an as need basis
- Coach, counsel, and advise on FT performance, attendance, procedures, policies, and other matters as needed
- Ensure that FTs fulfill their work schedules
- Partner with HR, IT, Training, or other support functions as needed to support FT needs
- Report up Team Lead any issues or concerns requiring a higher level of attention or response

Qualifications for field tech

- Have an active internet or Wi-Fi to use each day
- Have a reliable vehicle with the ability to equipment case (similar to a large

- Daily communication with your field tech coordinator
- Able to wear business casual attire and be professional at all times
- Prefer strong communication & organizational skills