

Example of Film Editor Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of film editor. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for film editor

- Understand and implement audio mixing, music mixing and sound effects
- Responsible for maintaining a consistent video library and uploading finished projects to media channels with captioning
- Staying abreast of Web Content Accessibility Guidelines as it applies to videography and other multimedia assets
- Train and mentor student employees and assure the quality of their work
- Collaborate with faculty and university partners including participating in creative concept development and brainstorming for visual content
- Keep abreast of new creative executions, developments, and technology in the multimedia field
- Report to supervisors for editing assignments
- Complete video modules and editing tasks in a timely and efficient manner
- Upon need, can be point of contact for video recording
- Develop short and long-form video deliverables that are in line with company brand standards and guidelines

Qualifications for film editor

- Remain calm and focused under pressure
- Professional experience and demonstrable proficiency in editing
- A firm understanding of the VFX process and terminology
- Professional experience using spreadsheets and databases and editing and presentation software

- Ability to manage and implement quickly feedback from multiple directors to get to the best product possible