

Example of Fine Dining Server Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is hiring for a fine dining server. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for fine dining server

- Making coffee or tea as needed
- Ensuring assigned work area is neat, clean and sanitized throughout shift by wiping tables, counter areas, beverage stations, sinks, and sweeping and mopping floors as required to maintain a clean and safe work station
- Partnering with culinary team and server to work as a team to ensure coordinated work flow during shift to meet business demands and ensure customer satisfaction
- Maintaining all equipment in proper fashion (coffee machines, soda and juice dispensers, ice bins), service stations, and refrigerators
- Serve 16 or more guests at a time
- Follows that all applicable internal policies, federal and state laws, rules, regulations and property-wide controls are enforced within the department
- Assists with the preparation and movement of tables based on business levels
- Prepares service stations and service equipment
- Polishes glassware, silverware and china
- Has the ability to speak at length with guests about the food and beverage selections, aiding their decision-making process

Qualifications for fine dining server

- Interest in wines, spirits, and Mixology

- Must be able to deliver a fun and friendly environment during each guest exchange
- Must be able to work within an empowered and fast paced environment that services the bar and servers within the restaurant
- This position may serve multiple property outlets, including but not limited to, Stowe Mountain Club, Solstice/Hourglass, Cottage and Banquets
- At least 1-2 years of previous experience working as a server in a casual dining outlet