Our innovative and growing company is searching for experienced candidates for the position of functional architect. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for functional architect

- Scan, engage, research and analyses the Business domain organizations and generate requirements
- Prepare, articulate, create and clarify Business requirements to Product teams and other stakeholders
- Mentoring and Grooming Business Analysts and SMEs in the team
- Reviews functional design documents, user stories and other functional artifacts to ensure that they are in alignment with the Business need
- Document the logical data model (diagrams + text explanations for main objects)
- Maintain a backlog of open questions on data modelisation coming from all streams (banking, portfolio management , CRM, eBanking)
- Define and document the application architecture including all peripheral systems (GL, Purchase Ledger, MIS, Reg reporting, SWIFT, etc)
- Check functional and data consistency between migration streams / integration streams
- Creates communication links between local teams and central (Paris) Architecture team on data or functional topics whenever necessary
- Help local teams in the design and implementation phase

Qualifications for functional architect

- Selenium or SoapUI Pro experience preferred with generally broad tools

- A demonstrable track record of managing multiple engineering projects from design to implementation
- Participates to streams workshops when relevant
- Alerts CIO, Project Management, central Architecture team when there is an unsolved inconsistency
- Has periodic contact with FNZ functional and data expert(s)