

Example of Global Operations Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is growing rapidly and is searching for experienced candidates for the position of global operations. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for global operations

- Identify and implement parcel administrative improvement processes
- Own parcel procedure documents and update as necessary based on carrier/shipping process changes
- Establish and administer shipping account numbers for all parcel carriers
- Maintain timely and accurate shipping account data complete with default payment coding logic
- Primary store support representative for internal store-shipping program and all parcel operational issues
- Support network by assisting in development of shipping solutions that support strategic initiatives, driving cost, service, and process improvements
- Conducts shipment-level spend and transit analysis to identify cost efficiencies
- Develop strong relationships with internal business partners and external suppliers
- Support go-live execution of new shipping needs with parcel suppliers
- Ensures timely and effective communication with suppliers, internal business partners, and carriers utilizing the appropriate channels

Qualifications for global operations

- Be expected to develop and drive operations accounting changes related to Ops, Finance, and Accounting-driven strategic initiatives and other projects, including collaborating and coordinating across business teams within the

- 10+ years of experience in Corporate Procurement, Transactional Purchasing, Team Management, Project Management, and Financial Analysis / Reporting required
- 5+ years of experience in Strategic Sourcing and Contract Management required
- Displays initiative offers solutions when problems are identified
- Significant work experience in strategy consulting experience preferred
- Extensive consulting experience on strategy topics