Our company is growing rapidly and is looking to fill the role of global quality manager. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for global quality manager

- Effectively manage offshore QA team resources and activities
- Work with stakeholders to educate and inform the benefits of automation based on business value, risks and constraints
- Work with Technology Team Leaders on recommendations on organizational change, testing strategy, and tooling
- Build effective relationships throughout IT
- Be a strong advocate that quality needs to exist throughout the software development lifecycle, not just after coding
- QA leadership focused on
- Connects well globally to understand changes in regulatory environment worldwide, as it relates to the quality and clinical systems, and adjust audit plans and approach accordingly
- Assess compliance of sponsor with applicable regulations and internal SOPs
- Designs and/or implements performance/process/quality improvement initiatives that encompass measurement monitoring, establishment of benchmarks, reporting, analysis, process improvement
- Develop, maintain and execute a comprehensive PTQ strategic communications plan, in alignment with PT Group Communications

Qualifications for global quality manager

- Experience in managing a team to deliver results in Fortune 50, global, Fast Moving Consumer Goods organizations, and their suppliers

- 5 or more years previous marketing, business development, sales experience in the life sciences, biotechnology or pharmaceutical industries, with a proven track record of achieving sales and profit targets demonstrating aggressive growth
- Excellent planning, prioritizing, organizational and communications skills
- National recognized Quality certification is desired
- Familiarity with Continuous Improvement Tools (Flow charts, Cause and effect diagrams, Pareto charts, Root Cause Analysis)