Our company is looking for a global security. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for global security

- Develops and manages the ICS Information Security program, creating and maintaining mission-critical, enterprise-wide technology related security strategies, policies, processes and procedures that govern data, networks, and application systems following applicable standards
- Identifies, evaluates, and reports on information security risks based upon business needs, compliance, and regulatory requirements
- Maintains technical knowledge of the latest industry trends, mitigation methods, and security technologies
- Oversees technology risk management activities and acts as an advocate for information security and business continuity
- Develops programs to assess and mitigate cybersecurity risks for ICS networks
- Oversees the investigation of ICS security breaches
- Serves as process owner of ongoing activities related to the availability, integrity, and confidentiality of Celanese ICS in compliance with the organization's information security policies
- Develops security updates and presentations for Director of Information Security and CIO
- Build a global network security strategy and have the ability to execute
- Work closely with the Head of Global Communications on strategy & execution

Qualifications for global security

- The ability to manage multiple projects, priorities and people while ensuring strategic focus is maintained in order to accomplish department goals and business objectives
- Ability to read, write and speak languages other than English
- Ability to communicate with Security and Compliance Architects
- Must be comfortable and have a desire for hands-on duties supporting customers during product demonstrations, training, and PoC
- Ability to manage staff and/or work remotely as the business model has the team spread to all four corners of the country