

Our innovative and growing company is hiring for a health consultant. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don't fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for health consultant

- Supports consultations and information-sharing with constituent groups (medical, counselling, HR, ombudsman and staff), including lessons learned and best practices on improving mental health and well-being of UN staff
- Monitors the progress of the project against the project plan, and institutes remedial actions if the project experiences significant slippage
- Reviews the documents, identifies problems, and follows up with the working group to be sure they get addressed
- Production of the final paper for submission to the HLCM, presenting the Mental Health Strategy for endorsement
- Developing, interpreting and implementing financial and medical concepts for financial tools and model
- Designing and producing analyses/reports for department and/or management
- Creating, maintaining and producing timely various standard analytic reports for internal and/or external use
- Researching and preparing evaluations on a variety of projects/problems (financial, statistical, operational and cost/benefit analyses)
- Analyze changes in provider reimbursement terms and recommends more cost efficient alternatives and explain to the provide
- Provide peer review and technical training to junior staff

Qualifications for health consultant

- Completion of continuing education to maintain credentials as required State Health and Life Insurance Licenses required
- Draft project communications, including rate capitation letters
- Be actively involved in the selling process with the senior client leader
- Directly supervise junior staff members and frequently provide supervisory feedback, training and mentoring to junior staff that have a project reporting relationship with them
- Excellent project management, presentation and interpersonal skills
- 1 to 5+ years of financial/analytical work related to group insurance and/or employee benefits programs preferred