Our company is hiring for a high voltage electrician. We appreciate you taking the time to review the list of qualifications and to apply for the position. If you don’t fill all of the qualifications, you may still be considered depending on your level of experience.

Responsibilities for high voltage electrician

- Accepts or rejects (as delegated by Site Manager) new, rebuilt, or repaired equipment for services
- Keeps plant Site Manager and other operators informed of status of equipment and conditions and prepared repair requests as needed
- Assists other vendor representatives with the repair of plant equipment as needed
- Performs PM in accordance with schedules, operating procedures and equipment warranty
- Performs scheduled inspection to determine if equipment is operating properly
- May assist the System Manager in overseeing contractors, ensuring safety regulations are being followed
- Follows University/shop procedures for scheduling system outages
- May oversee the work of an apprentice
- May assist in overseeing contractors to ensure safety regulations are being followed
- Perform Preventive Maintenance on all electrical gears

Qualifications for high voltage electrician

- Ability to operate University commercial vehicles with a gross vehicle weight rating of 10K+ (e.g., tow trucks, box trucks, trash trucks, buses, lifts)
spot and the patience for the time it takes (3+ hours) to adjust a watt-hour meter

- Handle emergency call-ins for outages
- Knowledge of backup generators for emergency tie-ins
- Required to work with a bucket truck
- Silver Spring, MD