

Example of Home Infusion RN Job Description

Powered by www.VelvetJobs.com

Our company is looking to fill the role of home infusion RN. If you are looking for an exciting place to work, please take a look at the list of qualifications below.

Responsibilities for home infusion RN

- Collaborative relationships involving agencies delivering services on behalf of / or in conjunction with BriovaRx , including nursing agencies in a contracted relationship, patient, families, significant caregivers, and other healthcare team members
- Assist in securing and maintaining licensure and accreditations warranted by BriovaRx , including required Home Health Licensure, JCAHO, and any other licensure or credentialing as necessary
- Compliance and adherence to State and Federal regulations and laws, JCAHO, HIPAA, CPR, and infusion pharmacy and nursing licensure accepted standards of practice
- Participates in staff meetings with nursing and pharmacy
- May provide education regarding BriovaRx services, for both internally and external customers
- May work in office or alternate settings including home setting
- Excellent driving record Maintains professional and automobile liability insurance
- Required to participate in afterhours on call responsibilities
- May be asked to participate in cross training of the various clinical functions in order to function in multiple roles as required
- Assesses, plans, implements and evaluates the physical and emotional needs of patients requiring IV therapy

Qualifications for home infusion RN

- INS/ONS certification preferred
- Continuing education necessary to maintain current licensure required by state or professional organization
- Minimum of two (2) years current nursing experience in a clinical specialty involving infusion therapy, including patient assessment skills, venous access skills, and emergency patient care
- Must be able to assume a flexible work schedule